Deep ruby. Sexy aromas of black raspberry, garrigue, and baking spices and smoky minerals. Dense, velvety red fruit flavors are alluringly seamless, with a slow-mounting baking spice quality. Turns sweeter on the fleshy, persistent finish. This extremely promising 100%-grenache cuvee, from vines in La Crau, is a project of consultant Philippe Cambie and importer/sommelier Daniel Johnnes. ($64) Bright ruby. Highly perfumed scents of raspberry, blackberry, garrigue and minerals, with a subtle smoky note emerging with air. Silky in texture and alluringly sweet, offering fresh red and dark berry flavors and zesty mineral lift. The finish is silky and incisive, leaving sweet berry and floral pastille notes behind. This is delicious now. (Daniel Johnnes Selections, New York, NY) 91 points
