Rating: 90

Drink 2009 - 2012

Cost: $72

The NV Brut Rose Selection is an intensely mineral, chalky Champagne. Medium in body, the wine reveals excellent length, if not quite the inner perfume and richness of the very finest NV roses. Still, this should be delicious with food, where the wine's energy and vitality will be particularly appreciated. Disgorged: March 20, 2009. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2012.
