The top wine of the estate is the 2015 Vinsobres Confidence, which is an even split of Grenache and Syrah that's brought up in second fill barrels. It's a beautiful wine that readers should be happy to have in the cellar and offers classy notes of cassis, black raspberries, pepper and a hint of barrique in its medium to full-bodied, concentrated, elegant, lengthy style. It will evolve for a decade.

Located in Vinsobres, this is a hidden gem of an estate that fashions classy, impeccably balanced, character-filled reds. Don't miss them.
