Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Jan 11

($40; an 80/20 blend of grenache and mourvedre raised entirely in concrete) Aromas of dark fruit compote, licorice, flowers and cracked pepper. Supple, juicy and spicy, with a restrained sweetness to the flavors of cherry, minerals, herbs and licorice. Turns spicier on the finish, with suave tannins adding shape and grip. Pretty serious for Gigondas. (Daniel Johnnes Wines, New York NY) 90 points
